Terms of Agreement

This agreement is between UKGBC (The 'Provider') and the organisation ('The Customer') named above.

Terms of Admission and Cancellation

1. Full participation for the entire period of the programme is required. The programme process involves group work which can be disrupted by the absence of a delegate from any part of the programme. It is therefore essential that delegates commit to full participation throughout the residential and subsequent workshops.
 2. The ability to communicate fluently in English is essential.
 3. An invoice for the full cost of participation in the programme will be generated when the participant is accepted onto the programme through the UKGBC Selection Process.
 4. Invoices are payable within 30 days of invoice date in the currency invoiced. If payment is not received within 30 days UKGBC may make the delegates place available to other customers. Payment must be received in advance of the commencement of the programme in order for the delegate to be permitted to participate.
 5. UKGBC reserves the right to make any change without prior notice to the content of the programme.
 6. In the event that a delegate wishes to cancel their place after being accepted onto the programme, the customer is entitled to nominate to the UKGBC Selection Panel a substitute delegate from within their organisation. Substitutions are not automatically permitted, each substitute must complete the Future Leaders Application and be approved by through the UKGBC Selection Process.
 7. By signing this form on behalf of the company, the company agrees that these terms and conditions will govern registration, cancellation and attendance on the programme.
 8. UKGBC reserves the right to cancel or postpone the programme. Should it be postponed, the delegate will have the opportunity to transfer their application to the new programme, or decline if the new dates are not suitable.
